

What do you think of the new two hour parking limit when you are visiting the Danescourt shops? Are they needed to stop people using the car park as an unofficial park and ride? Let us know your views via our contact page

What ever your views, unlike many shopping centre car parks there are, as yet, no notices about penalties or enforcement if you out stay your welcome.